

Chapter 1: Introduction

The principal purpose of disclosure is to secure the fair disposal of criminal proceedings and ensure that justice is done. Non-disclosure of material information may prejudice the fairness of a trial. It would be incompatible with the Article 6 rights of the accused, and could – if a conviction is secured – result in an appeal being successful. It can also result in judicial criticism of the Crown

Chapter 2: Disclosure Duty on the Crown: Overview

2.1 General Principles - 2.2 The legal basis of the obligation of disclosure - 2.3 The Duty of the Defence - 2.4 Requests by the Defence for additional disclosure - 2.6 Information disclosed by the Crown - 2.7 Crown Undertakings to the Court regarding the disclosure duty of the prosecutor - 2.8 Disclosure and Redaction - 2.9 Translation of Productions, Witness Statements & CHRs

Chapter 3: The Obligation of the Police and Other Investigating Agencies to Submit Relevant Information to the Crown

3.1. The Law - 3.2. Policy - 3.3 Reasonable Lines of Enquiry ( Intelligence - List of Persons of Possible Interest to the Enquiry) - 3.4 The Role of the Reporting Officer - 3.5 The Role of the Senior Investigating Officer - 3.6 The Role of the Reviewing Officer - 3.7 Dedicated Reviewing Officers - 3.8 Intelligence Reviewing Officers - 3.9 The 3-Stage Assessment Process - 3.10 Police Scotland Standard Operating Procedures

Chapter 4: Witness Statements

4.1 The Law - 4.2 Policy - 4.3 Original Manuscript Witness Statements - 4.4 Questionnaires (Pro Forma and House to House) - 4.5 Victim Impact Statements - 4.6 Precognitions (4.6.1 The Law - 4.6.2 Policy - 4.6.3 Precognoscers' Notes - 4.6.4 Disclosure Advice to Witnesses - 4.6.5 Precognitions of Children - 4.6.6 Reluctant Witnesses - 4.6.7 Witnesses who adopt their Statements at Precognition) - 4.7 Vulnerable Witness Summary Reports - 4.8 Evidence introduced by Section 259 Certificate - 4.9 Defence Witnesses - 4.10 Recording of Witness Statements on Schedules

Chapter 5: Criminal History Records

5.1 The Law - 5.2 Policy: Civilian Witnesses - 5.3 Policy: Police Witnesses - 5.4 Policy: Professional, Expert and Official Witnesses - 5.5 Policy: English & Welsh and Foreign Convictions - 5.6 Evidence introduced by Section 259 Certificate - 5.7 Criminal History Records for Defence Witnesses - 5.8 Recording of CHRS on Schedules

Chapter 6: Productions

6.1 The Law - 6.2 Policy - 6.3 Timescales for Disclosure of Productions – Custody Cases - Cases Where the Accused is at Liberty - Priority Cases - Forensic Science Reports - 6.4 Sensitive Productions - Obtaining and Disclosing Sensitive Personal Records in Sexual Crime Cases - 6.5 Visual Recording of Child Witness Interviews - 6.6 Video Identification Parades - 6.7 Witness Statements as Productions - 6.8 Applications for Search Warrants - 6.9 Forensic Files - 6.10 Continuing Duty to Disclose - 6.11 Recording of Productions on Schedules

Chapter 7: Disclosure of Information Prior to First Appearance

7.1 General Principles - 7.2 Submission of the Police Report - 7.3 Preparing the Summary of Evidence - 7.4 Preparing the C-kit - 7.5 Specialist Reporting Agency Cases - 7.6 Failed/Rejected Direct Measures - 7.7 Roll Up Cases - 7.8 Information that routinely needs to be removed - 7.9 Custody Statements - 7.10

Disclosure of further information - 7.11      Disclosure to Solicitors from England, Wales & Northern Ireland

Chapter 8: Procedures for Requesting & Disclosing Statements and Criminal History Records: General

8.1 Initial Processing of Cases - 8.2 Disclosure Timelines - 8.3 Disclosure to Accused's Representative - 8.4 Disclosure where an indictment is raised without any prior petition

Chapter 9: Procedures for Requesting and Disclosing Statements & Criminal History Records: Summary Cases

9.1 Marking Witnesses for Citing - 9.2 Statements & Witness 'S' (CHS) Numbers: What to Request - 9.3 Statements & Witness 'S' (CHS) Numbers: When to Request - 9.4 Event Records - 9.5 Submission of Statements & Witness 'S' (CHS) numbers - 9.6 List of Witnesses - 9.7 Consideration of Statements - 9.8 Consideration of Criminal History Records - 9.9 Disclosure to the Accused's Legal Representative - 9.10 Disclosure to Solicitors from England, Wales & Northern Ireland

Chapter 10: Procedures for Disclosure of Statements and Criminal History Records: Solemn Cases

10.1 Requesting Statements & Criminal History Records: What to Request - 10.2 Requesting Statements & Criminal History Records: When to Request (10.2.1 Custody Cases - 10.2.2 Petition Warrants - 10.3 Event Records - 10.4 Submission of Statements & Criminal History Records - 10.5 List of Witnesses - 10.6 Consideration of Statements - 10.7 Consideration of Criminal History Records - 10.8 Disclosure to the Accused's Legal Representative - 10.9 Disclosure to Solicitors from England, Wales & Northern Ireland

Chapter 11: Transmission of Disclosure Information

11.1 Policy - 11.2 Disclosure of Statements and Previous Convictions and Outstanding Charges (PCOCs) - 11.11 Disclosure of Productions - 11.3 Subsequent Disclosure of Additional Information in all cases - 11.6 Disclosure of Information in Court - High Court Cases - 11.7 Disclosure of Information in Court - Sheriff and Jury Cases - 11.8 Disclosure of Information in Court - Summary Cases - 11.9 Disclosure of Information by Access - 11.12 Disclosure of Information by E-mail - 11.13 Disclosure of Information by other means - 11.15 Defence as Data Controllers of the Information Disclosed

Chapter 12: List of Witnesses

12.1 General Practice - 12.2 Addresses of a Witness - 12.3 Withholding details of a Witness - 12.4 When to withhold - 12.5 Additional Witnesses

Chapter 13: Witness Statements: General

13.1 General Practice - 13.2 Withholding Statements Temporarily - 13.3 Withholding Statements Completely - 13.4 Additional Witness Statements - 13.5 Release of Statements - 13.6 Access to statements by witnesses - 13.7 Solemn Cases - 13.8 Summary Cases - 13.9 Witness statements: Use during trial.

Chapter 14: Witness Statements: Format & Content

14.1 General - 14.2 Framework of the National Standard Statement (NSS) - 14.3 Disclosable Part of the National Standard Statement - 14.4 Confidential Part of the National Standard Statement - 14.5 Specialist Reporting Agency Cases - 14.6 Content of Witness Statements

Chapter 15: Witness Statements: Redaction

15.1 General Principles - 15.2 Personal Details - 15.3 Address of a Witness - 15.4 Telephone Numbers - 15.5 Occupation - 15.6 Place of Work - 15.7 Next of Kin/ Family History Details - 15.8 Medical Information - 15.9 Where & When a Statement was taken and by Whom - 15.10 Security Information - 15.11 Operational Information - 15.12 Issues of Materiality and Admissibility - 15.13 Review of Decisions - 15.14 Copies of Redacted Statements

Chapter 16: Schedules of Relevant Information in Solemn Proceedings

16.1 Introduction to the Scheduling System - 16.2 Purpose of Schedules - 16.3 Format of Schedules - 16.4 Types of Schedules - 16.5 An Overview of the Scheduling System - 16.6 Preparation of Schedules by the Investigating Agency - 16.7 Identifying Cases as Petition Cases - 16.8 Anticipated Reporting, Preliminary Hearing/ First Diet, and Trial Dates - 16.9 Reductions to Summary & No Further Proceedings Markings - 16.10 Submission of Schedules by the Investigating Agency - 16.11 Consideration of Schedules by the Case Preparer - 16.12 Crown Schedules - 16.13 Disclosure of Schedules to the Defence - 16.14 Business Processes for Schedules - 16.16 Cases Transferred between PF Offices - 16.17 Submission by the Investigating Agency of Updated Versions of Statements Already Submitted

Chapter 17: Criminal History Records: General

17.1 General Obligations & Timing of Disclosure - 17.2 When to obtain and when to Disclose - 17.3 When to obtain and when to Disclose - 17.4 Police Witnesses - 17.5 Cases Submitted by Specialist Reporting Agencies - 17.6 Recording of CHRS on Schedules - 17.7 What should be disclosed as part of the Criminal History Record - 17.8 Checking Accuracy of Criminal History Record with the witness - 17.9 Multiple Accused - 17.10 Co-accused as a Witness - 17.11 Criminal History Records for Defence Witnesses - 17.12 Release of Material - 17.13 Advising Witnesses that Criminal History Records may be disclosed

Chapter 18: Criminal History Records: Content

18.1 Electronic Link to Criminal History System - 18.2 Content of the CHS Record - 18.3 Pre-redaction CHS Record

Chapter 19: Criminal History Records: Redaction

19.1 General Principles - 19.2 What should be considered for Disclosure - 19.3 Previous Convictions & the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 - 19.4 Children's Hearing Appearances & Pending Cases against Children - 19.5 Direct Measures, Police Fixed Penalties & the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 - 19.6 Assessing Materiality - 19.7 Determining what to Redact on the basis of Sensitivity - 19.8 Non-Disclosure of Material Information in the Public Interest - 19.9 Disclosure to the Defence - 19.10 Redaction in Solemn Cases - 19.11 Keeping the position under review

Chapter 20: Criminal History Records: Police Officers

20.1 General Principles - 20.2 The Police Officer / CHS Database - 20.3 Updating the Database - 20.4 Obtaining the CHS Record for the Police Witness - 20.5 Scheduling the CHR in Solemn Proceedings - 20.6 Disclosing the CHS Record to the Accused's Representative

Chapter 21: Redacted Statements in High Court Cases

Chapter 22: Requesting & Disclosing Productions

22.1 General Practice - 22.2 General Obligations - 22.3 Reporting of Cases - 22.4 Decision Making by Procurators Fiscal - 22.5 Early Disclosure of Productions - 22.6 Timing of Commencement of Disclosure Obligations in a Prosecution - 22.7 Access by Defence to Disclosure of Crown Productions in Summary Cases - 22.8 Access by Defence to Disclosure of Crown Productions in Solemn Cases - 22.9 Procedures and Timelines in Summary Cases - 22.10 Procedures and Timelines in Solemn Cases - 22.11 Priority Cases - 22.12 Forensic Science Reports - 22.13 Productions Added by Section 67 Notice

Chapter 23: Disclosure to the Unrepresented Accused

23.1 General Principles - 23.2 Policy - 23.3 Safeguarding the Information provided to the Unrepresented Accused - 23.4 Determining the Appropriate Method of Disclosure - 23.5 Access to Information for the duration of the Trial - 23.6 Arrangements for Access to Information - 23.7 Consideration of Information prior to disclosure - 23.8 Restrictions placed on accused during access to information (Provision of copies - Provision by Access - Provision of Copies and by Access) - 23.9 Misuse of disclosed information - 23.10 Procedure following misuse of disclosed information - 23.11 Limitations on the Cases in which an Accused can be Unrepresented - 23.12 Third Party Interests

Chapter 24: Disclosure of Information obtained during a CAAP Investigation

24.1 Introduction & Definitions - 24.2 The Law - 24.3 The Policy - 24.4 Establishing the Existence of a related Criminal Prosecution - 24.5 Precognition of the CAAP Complainer – Warnings - 24.6 Identifying Information relevant to the Criminal Prosecution - 24.7 Identifying Information Material to the Criminal Prosecution - 24.8 Providing Relevant Information to the Prosecutor - 24.9 Schedule of Relevant Information obtained from a CAAP Investigation - 24.10 Assessing Relevant CAAP Information for Materiality in relation to the Related Prosecution - 24.11 Recording Disclosure Decisions in Summary Cases - 24.12 Recording Disclosure Decisions in Solemn Cases - 24.13 Disclosure to the Defence - 24.14 Police Misconduct Information - 24.15 Requests by Complainers for copies of their Statements/Precognitions - 24.16 The Duty to Keep Relevancy and Materiality under Review - 24.17 Duty of Review where CAAP complainer is convicted prior to submission of CAAP Report

Chapter 25: Sensitive & Intelligence Information

25.1 General Principles - 25.2 Provision of Sensitive Information in Summary Proceedings - 25.3 Provision of Highly Sensitive Information in Summary Proceedings - 25.4 Provision of Sensitive Information in Solemn Proceedings - 25.5 Provision of Highly Sensitive Information in Solemn Proceedings - 25.6 Assessing Sensitive & Highly Sensitive Information for Disclosure - 25.7 Submission of Highly Sensitive Schedules to Crown Office - 25.8 Non-Disclosure of Material Information - 25.9 Non-Disclosure in the Public Interest (Non-Disclosure Order - Exclusion Order - Non-Notification Order and Exclusion Order - Orders Preventing or Restricting Disclosure - Appeal and Review of Orders) - 25.10 Disclosure of Witness Statements - 25.11 Sensitive Intelligence Information held by another Investigating Agency - 25.12 Further Guidance in relation to particular forms of Intelligence Information

Chapter 26: Appeals

26.1 General Principles - 26.2 The Common Law Background - 26.3 The Statutory Framework - 26.4 The Extent of the Disclosure Obligations in Appellate Proceedings - 26.5 Limits of Crown Duty - 26.6 Applications for Further Disclosure in Appellate Proceedings - 26.7 Applications for Court Rulings on Disclosure in Appellate Proceedings - 26.8 Applications to Review a Court Ruling on Disclosure in Appellate Proceedings - 26.9 Disclosure Requests where no Appeal Proceedings - 26.10 Disclosure Duties upon Crown Appeal against Acquittal - 26.11 Disclosure Duties when Conviction upheld on Appeal - 26.12 Disclosure Requests from the Scottish

Criminal Cases Review Commission (SCCRC) - 26.13 Response to Disclosure Requests - 26.14 Significance of Disclosure - 26.15 Reconciliation of Disclosed Information - 26.16 Records of Disclosed Information

Chapter 27: Review of Disclosure

27.1 Duty to Review Disclosure - 27.2 Unused Information – Witness Statements - 27.3 Unused Information – Criminal History Records - 27.4 Schedules of Information in Solemn Proceedings

Chapter 28: Auditing of Disclosure Practices

28.2 Solemn Cases - 28.3 Best Practice for Solemn Legal Managers - 28.4 Summary Cases

Chapter 29: Redaction of Productions

29.1 General Principles - 29.2 Personal Details - 29.3 Witness Telephone Numbers - 29.4 Witness Occupation & Place of Work - 29.5 Witness Next of Kin/ Family History Details - 29.6 Witness Medical Information - 29.7 Security Information - 29.8 Operational Information - 29.9 Issues of Materiality and Admissibility - 29.10 Criminal History Records - 29.11 Review of Decisions - 29.12 Compelling Reason Not to Disclose - 29.13 Copies of Redacted Productions

Chapter 30: Assistance by Offenders – Disclosure Obligations

30.1 Introduction - 30.2 Disclosure Policy - 30.3 Types of Assistance provided by Offenders - 30.4 Disclosure of Assistance Agreements and Conditional Immunity Notices - 30.5 Timing of disclosure - 30.6 What needs to be disclosed? - 30.7 Related/Unrelated Offences - 30.8 Requests at precognition to give assistance - 30.9 Previously undisclosed information at Sentencing / Appeals Stage

Chapter 31: The Disclosure Page

31.1 Introduction - 31.2 Layout of the Disclosure Page - 31.3 Statements - 31.4 Productions - 31.5 Issues at Precognition - 31.6 Criminal History Records - 31.7 General Issues/Observations - 31.8 Schedules Summary and Reconciliation Record - 31.9 Updating the Disclosure Page - 31.10 Disclosure Court Minute Sheet – Solemn Proceedings

Chapter 32: Automatic Disclosure of Information

32.1 General Principles - 32.2 Summary Cases - 32.3 Solemn Cases - 32.4 Information Suitable for Automatic Disclosure - 32.5 Additional Information suitable for Automatic Disclosure in Summary Cases - 32.6 CCTV/ Video/DVD Evidence - 32.7 Witness Statements and Criminal History Records

Chapter 33: Disclosure and VIA

33.1 Introduction - 33.2 Vulnerable Witness Summary Report - 33.3 VIA interviews - 33.4 Consideration and Disclosure of Information to the Defence: Responsibilities of staff

Chapter 34: The Non-Sensitive Schedule

34.1 Overview - 34.2 Format of the Non-Sensitive Schedule - 34.3 The Investigating Agency Section of the Schedule - 34.4 Listing Witness Statements - 34.5 Listing Productions - 34.6 Listing Actions - 34.7 Listing Messages - 34.8 Listing Internal Communications between the Investigating Agency and the Crown - 34.9 The Crown Section of the Schedule - 34.10 Content of the Non-Sensitive Schedule - 34.11 Recording Disclosure Decisions - 34.12 The Crown Non-Sensitive Schedule - 34.13 Disclosure to the Defence

Chapter 35: The Sensitive Schedule

35.1 Overview - 35.2 Format of the Sensitive Schedule - 35.3 The Investigating Agency Section of the Schedule - 35.4 The Crown Section of the Schedule - 35.5 Content of the Sensitive Schedule - 35.7 The Crown Sensitive Schedule - 35.8 Disclosure to the Defence

Chapter 36: The Highly Sensitive Schedule

36.1 Overview - 36.2 Format of the Highly Sensitive Schedule - 36.3 The Police Section of the Schedule - 36.4 The Crown Section of the Schedule - 36.5 Content of the Highly Sensitive Schedule - 36.6 Reporting to Crown Office - 36.7 Disclosure to the Defence

Chapter 37: Considering Information for Disclosure in Solemn Proceedings

37.1 Overview - 37.2 Ensuring that the Schedules have been accurately completed - 37.3 Reconciling what has been submitted with what has been received - 37.4 Information listed on the Schedule which has not been submitted - 37.5 Determining the Appropriate Disclosure Action - 37.6 Recording the Appropriate Disclosure Action - 37.7 Information obtained directly by the Case preparer - 37.8 Disclosing Information to the Defence - 37.9 Undertakings provided by the Investigating agency - 37.10 Submission & Disclosure of Additional Schedules - 37.11 When Existing Schedules should be Updated - 37.12 How to update Existing Schedules - 37.13 Including Schedules in the Precognition - 37.14 The Disclosure Page - 37.15 The Disclosure Checklist

Chapter 38: Disclosure FOS Reports

38.1 Introduction - 38.2 Production Records - 38.3 Case Level Reports - 38.4 Office Level Reports

Chapter 39: Debates, Applications for Court Rulings, Compatibility Issues and Petitions for Recovery

39.1 General Principles - 39.2 Applications for Court Rulings - 39.3 The Hearing - 39.4 Court Determination of the Original Application - 39.5 Application to Review the Court's Ruling - 39.6 The Review Hearing - 39.7 Court Determination of an Application for Review - 39.8 Appeals against the Court's Ruling on Disclosure - 39.9 Common Law Points on Disclosure Issues: Solemn Proceedings - 39.10 Common Law Points on Disclosure Issues: Summary Proceedings - 39.11 Common Law Points: Appealing the Decision of the Court - 39.12 Recovery of Documents: Overview - 39.13 Recovery of Documents: Solemn Proceedings - 39.14 Recovery of Documents: Summary Proceedings - 39.15 Recovery of Documents: Preparation and Appearance in Court - 39.16 Recovery of Documents: Appealing the Decision of the Court - 39.17 Compatibility Issues: Overview - 39.18 Compatibility Issues: Solemn Proceedings - 39.19 Compatibility Issues: Summary Proceedings - 39.20 Compatibility Issues: Preparation and Appearance in Court - 39.21 Compatibility Issues: References to the High Court or Supreme Court - 39.21 Compatibility Issues: Appealing the Decision of the Court - 39.22 Information withheld in the Public Interest

Chapter 40: Professional Misconduct - Investigating Agencies

40.1 General Principles - 40.2 Defence Requests for Information relating to Misconduct Warnings - 40.3 Revelation of Misconduct Information by the Investigating Agency - 40.4 The Police Officer Misconduct Database - 40.5 Updating the Database - 40.6 Obtaining and Scheduling Details of the Misconduct Finding in Solemn Proceedings - 40.7 Obtaining Details of the Misconduct Finding in Summary Proceeding - 40.8 Defence Requests for Information - 40.9 Assessing the Materiality of Misconduct Information - 40.10 Disclosing Misconduct Information - 40.11 Keeping the position under review - 40.12 Additional Witnesses not included in SPR - 40.13 Police Officers as Defence Witnesses

Chapter 41: Fatal Accident Inquiries & Disclosure

41.1. Introduction - 41.2 Disclosure to Legally Represented Parties - 41.3 Disclosure to Self-represented and Non-legally Represented Parties (including those represented by a solicitor who is not qualified in Scotland) - 41.4 Unused Information - 41.5 Criminal History Records

Chapter 42: Defence Statements

42.1 Introduction - 42.2 What is a Defence Statement? - 42.3 Lodging of Defence Statements in Solemn Proceedings - 42.4 Prosecutor's Duty to Review - 42.5 Prosecutor's Duty to Disclose - 42.6 Lodging of Defence Statements in Summary Proceedings - 42.7 Prosecutor's Duty to Review - 42.8 Prosecutor's Duty to Disclose - 42.9 Further guidance

Chapter 43: Double Jeopardy

43.4 Disclosure on an Application to Prosecute Anew - 43.5. Cold Case Review Unit - 43.6 Retention of Papers and Productions - 43.7 Retention of Samples - 43.8 Disclosure Implications - 43.10 Continuing Duty of Prosecutor - 43.11 Applications for Further Disclosure - 43.12 Court Ruling on Disclosure - 43.13 Disclosure Schedules

Chapter 44: Large and Complex cases

44.1. The Law - 44.2 Duty of the law enforcement agency - 44.3 Definition of a large and/or complex case - 44.4 Difficulties in ensuring compliance with the disclosure regime that arise in such cases - 44.5 Cross-agency investigations - 44.6 Spontaneous duty of disclosure - 44.7 Issues which can arise - 44.8 Assessment for relevance - 44.9 Information not on mass media storage devices - 44.10 Mass media storage devices - 44.11 Standard Practice for the Examination of Computers and allied Digital Storage Media - 44.12 Recovery and retention of material - 44.13 Information recorded in a language other than English - 44.14 Information held in other countries not required as evidence but which may be relevant and material - 44.15 Witness protection - 44.16 Potential Incriminees - 44.17 Managing disclosure - 44.18 Telephone records – call data records

- Case Law
- Annex A Template National Standard Station (version 5)
- Annex B Timelines in Solemn Proceedings
- Annex C Reconciliation Checklist
- Annex D Abbreviations
- Annex E Inventory of Statements and Criminal History Records
- Annex F Sample Application for "Protective Order" in Summary Cases
- Annex G Sample Application for "Protective Order" in Sheriff and Jury Cases
- Annex H Sample application for "Protective Order" in High Court Cases
- Annex I Sample Petition and Complaint
- Annex J Disclosure to Unrepresented Accused: Arrangements for access to Materials at PFs Office

- Annex K Numeric List of Generic Notes used in Schedules
- Annex L Precognoscer's Flowcharts for Schedule
- Annex M Redaction of CHR's - Flowcharts of Considerations to be applied
- Annex N Flowcharts of steps to follow when considering information obtained during CAP investigation
- Annex O Guidance on Revelation and Disclosure of Particular Categories of Intelligence Information
- Annex P Same Application for a Disclosure Undertaking in Fatal Accident Inquiries
- Annex Q Applying the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974
- Annex R ACPOS Guide to Handling Protectively Marked Material